- 14 In this agreement, "Personal Information of Users" shall mean personal information regarding Users and that specified in Article 2 of the "Protection of Personal Information Regulations of the National Institute of Advanced Industrial Science and Technology" (Regulation 27-87, hereinafter referred to as "Protection of Personal Information Regulations").
- 15 In this agreement, "Inventions" shall mean those specified in Article 2-7 of the Employees' Invention Regulations.
- 16 In this agreement, "Data of Users" shall mean programs, as well as data required for calculation and learning, and those results saved in ABCI memory during use of ABCI by Users.
- 17 In this agreement, "Operational Data" shall mean three types of information, consisting of "File Information," "Use Information," and "Performance Information," secondarily generated through use of ABCI by Users. Among these, "File Information" shall mean such file information in which Data of Users are stored as file size, creation date, revision date, and the like; "Use Information" shall mean information concerning how Users use ABCI (types and amounts of resources and programs used); and "Performance Information" shall mean information concerning program performance (CPU, GPU, utilization factor of memory, and others.)

18 In this agreement, "Home Area" shall mean a storage area provided exclusively for Users along with use of ABCI Service for no additional charge.

19 In this agreement, "Group Area" shall mean a storage area provided exclusively for the User Group accompanying use of ABCI Service for an additional charge.

(Purpose and Use Cases)

Article 3 The Institute shall promote its research results by providing researchers with ABCI Service, a large-scale, high speed, and most advanced computation system suitable for artificial intelligence research and thereby promoting artificial intelligence research in Japan and accelerate its social implementation, and provide ABCI Service to the following use cases:

- (i) a use by a User Entity in accordance with the user registration application;
- (ii) other uses which the Institute approves.

(User Entity)

Article 4: A User Entity must be either one of the following:

- (i) a corporation which is located and registered in Japan and defined by the Companies Act (Act No. 86 of July 26, 2005);
- (ii) a university, a public institute and a non-profit organization including a research institute such as an independent administrative agency and a foundation located in Japan;
- (iii) other than the above entities, a group recognized by the Institute, a union, an institute and an equivalent corporation whose main office is located in Japan (including organizations that are not legal entities).

(Qualifications)

Article 5 In order for Users to use ABCI Service, they must not act against the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Act (Act No. 228 of December 1, 1949), cabinet ordinances, ministerial ordinances, circular notices, or the like concerning security trade export control grounded on the Act (hereinafter referred to as "Security Trade Export Control Laws"), as well as the Security Trade Export Control Regulations of the National Institute of Advanced Industrial Science and Technology, and other rules grounded on the Regulations (hereinafter referred to as "Security Trade Export Regulations), and must be a resident residing within Japan; Provided, however, that this shall not apply to non-residents as long as the Institute permits them to use ABCI Service within the coverage of Security Trade Export Control Laws.

2 The term "Resident" specified in the preceding clause shall mean a person who is applicable under one of the following items:

- (i) is a Japanese national and resides in Japan;
- (ii) is a Japanese national and serves for the Overseas Diplomatic Establishment in Japan;
- (iii) is a foreign national and works for an office located in Japan;
- (iv) is a foreign national and has spent six months or more in Japan after entry.

(User Registration Application and Establishment of the Contract of Use)

Article 6 A Prospective Entity which hopes to use ABCI Service, a Supervisory User candidate shall be selected in the User Group among the Executives and Staff belonging to the Prospective Entity. Moreover, said Supervisory User candidate shall fill out the "ABCI User Registration Application Form" (Form No. 1 in the attached sheet), designated by the Institute, or the application screen displayed on the Institute's website (hereinafter, collectively referred to as "Application Form"), and then submit said Application Form in written or electronic format to the Institute for User Registration Applications.

2 The Supervisory User candidate shall confirm whether all Users come under clause 1 of the preceding article at the point of application.

3 The Institute shall notify a Prospective Entity of acceptance of its application only when he/she judges that all the requirements described in each item as follows are fulfilled by means of the ABCI User Answer Form (hereinafter referred to as "Answer Form"). With this notification, a contract of use shall be established between the Prospective Entity and the Institute on the ABCI service use based on this agreement (hereinafter, referred to as "the Contract of Use"). A legal entity who reaches the Contract of Use stage shall be defined as "User Entity":

- (i) a Prospective Entity shall be compliant with Article 4;
- (ii) the purpose of use shall be for research and development;
- (iii) use of service shall not infringe on the promotion of public welfare, nor public or national interests;
- (iv) use of service shall not hinder business of the Institute;
- (v) a Prospective Entity shall be capable of paying Usage fees corresponding to ABCI Points specified in Article 14;
- (vi) users described in the Application Form shall not be likely to act against the rules specified in each item of Article 16-1;
- (vii) a Prospective Entity shall be capable of paying Obligation for Compensation specified in Article 25;
- (viii) the Supervisory User candidate shall have carried out confirmation of all Users specified in the preceding clause;
- (ix) users shall not act against Security Trade Export Control Laws, Regulations, or the like;
- (x) the Prospective Entity and the Supervisory User candidate shall transcribe correct information on the Application Form without omission;
- (xi) other than specified in each preceding item, no special reasons exist for the use to be rejected.

4 The Institute may request a Supervisory User candidate to assign one or more User Administrators to manage Users.

5 The Institute may ask Supervisory User candidate questions and request him/her to provide additional materials or ask a third party's opinions in order to confirm whether the requirements specified in each item of clause 3 are fulfilled.

6 The Institute may commission creation of the Answer Form in clause 3 and a notification work process to an outsourcer, and Users shall approve it.

7 For an Application Form, the Institute may require a Supervisory User candidate to make a pledge in written or electronic format.

8 The Institute shall notify a Prospective Entity that its application has been rejected by means of the Answer Form in cases that any one of the requirements specified in clause 3 are not fulfilled.

9 A Prospective Entity may cancel its application for User Registration Application by notifying the Institute to that extent up until the Institute notifies the unit of acceptance of ABCI Service use by Answer Form.

10 Regardless of clauses 1 and 2, a Prospective Entity or a User Entity may omit the descriptions of a "User" on the Application Form to be submitted by a Supervisory User as long as the Institute approves it. In such cases, a User candidate (which shall be limited to Executives and Staff) shall directly fill out the User Registration Application in writing as designated by the Institute (Form No. 2 in the attached sheet) and submit it in writing or transmit it in electronic format to the Institute. The Institute may notify a Prospective Entity or a User Entity of approval of use by said User candidate, regardless of clause 3-(viii).

(Cancellation and Suspension of User Registration Application)

Article 7 The Institute may cancel acceptance of use of ABCI Service by a User Entity, or order a User Entity to suspend the use of ABCI Service, as specified in clause 3 of the preceding Article, in the event that any requirement specified in any item in the preceding clause 3 is not fulfilled or any item in Article 16-1 is unsatisfied.

- 2 Regardless of those specified in the preceding clause, the Institute may cancel acceptance of ABCI Service or suspend the use of said services as specified in clause 3 of the preceding Article in cases wherein the Institute deems it required for management purpose. In such cases, the Institute shall not have any obligation to disclose the reason for said cancellation or suspension to the User Entity.
- 3 The Institute may announce the fact when it cancels acceptance of ABCI Service or suspend the use of said services as specified in the preceding clause 2.
- 4 The Contract of Use shall be terminated by cancelation of acceptance of ABCI Service specified in the preceding clause 1 and 2.

(Change of User Registration Application)

Article 8 In the event that any change occurs to the contents of the Application Form as submitted, based on the provision of Article 6, the User Entity and the Supervisory User shall notify the Institute promptly of the details by means of the Notice of Change in User Registration Application (Form No. 3 in the attached sheet) provided by the Institute.

- 2 The Supervisory User shall monitor the situations of Users and notify the User Administrator, if assigned, of any changes in affiliation or disqualification of a User, if it occurs on his/her own, or other relevant changes based on the preceding clause.
- 3 The Institute shall not accept any liabilities for damages incurred to Users or a third party by delay or negligence in submitting a notice of change.

(Providing Service and Outsourcing)

Article 9 The Institute may provide Users with ABCI Service as specified in each of the following items, and Users shall be able to make use of the service by way of accessing it via the internet or the like:

- (i) computational resources of ABCI;
  - (ii) software provided by the Institute;
  - (iii) support for using ABCI Service;
  - (iv) support for software installation carried out by Users;
  - (v) lecture classes on ABCI use and for software usable on ABCI;
  - (vi) any other services provided by the Institute.
- 2 Among software referred to in (ii) of the preceding clause, basic software necessary for ABCI use (OS, job control, coding environment, data transmission, etc.) is provided by the Institute.
  - 3 Among software necessary for ABCI use, acquisition of licensure and rights for receiving support for software other than that provided by the Institute as described in the preceding clause shall be carried out by Users and all associated costs shall be paid by Users.

- 4 The Institute shall ensure continuity from inside the ABCI system to the outside connection point, and Users shall ensure external connection from the connection point prepared by the Institute to the Users point as the internet, etc.
- 5 In the event that no seat is available in lecture classes as specified in item 5 of clause 1, Users may not be able to receive the service; however, the Institute shall not bear any liability nor provide any indemnification and compensation for them.
- 6 The Institute may commission system operation and maintenance of ABCI Service to an outsourcer, and Users shall approve it.

(Home Area and Group Area)

Article 10 The Institute shall provide each User with Home Area capacity as separately specified. It shall be the Users' responsibility to back up data stored in the Home Area provided by the Institute. The Institute shall not bear any liabilities for data loss due to unexpected system failure and the like. Moreover, the Institute shall not be liable for the lack of Home Area capacity for any reason attributable to Users.

- 2 The Institute shall provide each User Group with Group Area capacity up to the limit independently specified by an additional unit cost. It shall be the Users' responsibility to back up data stored in the Group Area provided by the Institute, and the Institute shall not bear any liability for data loss due to unexpected system failure. Moreover, the Institute shall not be liable for the lack of Group Area capacity for any reason attributable to Users.
- 3 For each area described in the preceding clause, a limit may be set to the number and size of files which Users can save due to system limitation.

(Cancellation of Service)

Article 11 The Institute shall be able to suspend ABCI Service in cases where:

- (i) the need arises due to maintenance, construction, relocation, etc. of facilities in the Institute;
- (ii) the Institute needs to take priority for operating ABCI for an emergency situation, such as if a natural disaster occurs or is likely to occur;
- (iii) telecommunication carriers suspend service within the Institute;
- (iv) the Institute judges that ABCI Service should be suspended for any other rational reason.

2 In case that the Institute suspends ABCI Service, the Institute shall notify User Entities by way of appropriate manner as judged by the Institute (including but not limited to display on the website and/or email notification), provided, however, that this is not applied in the event of an emergency as described in items 2 or 3 of the preceding clause.

3 The Institute shall not return usage fees of ABCI Points that were previously paid to a User Entity, notwithstanding that the service was suspended as described in clause 1. Moreover, the Institute shall not be legally liable for damages that Users incur due to service suspension nor provide any indemnification and compensation.

(Change of Service Details)

Article 12 The Institute shall be able to change a part of or the entire contents of ABCI Service at any time.

2 In case that the Institute makes important changes to the contents of ABCI Service, the Institute shall notify User Entities by way of appropriate manner as judged by the Institute (including but not limited to display on the website and/or email notification).

(Support for Use of ABCI Service)

Article 13 Support for use of ABCI Service shall be available from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on weekdays, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, holidays and New Year's holidays as prescribed by the Institute.

2 The support described in the preceding clause shall consist only of answering questions concerning use of ABCI Service.

3 Questions from Users shall be principally taken on a first-come, first-served basis, except when questions influencing more users may take priority. Moreover, response time may depend on the state of congestion and job load.

(ABCI Points)

Article 14 Usage fees, corresponding to ABCI Points required for the use of ABCI Service, shall be charged to a User Entity completing a User Registration Application. In this process, the User Entity shall be able to obtain ABCI Points which are managed by each User Group. In case of the first use, the upper limit may be set in the obtainable ABCI Points.

2 A User Entity shall be able to acquire additional ABCI Points at any time by requesting Points from the Institute. The fees for additional ABCI Points will be billed to a User Entity at the beginning of every month after closing of the account at the end of the month in which the service was used.

3 The number of ABCI Points corresponding to the use of services such as use of computational resources will be deducted from those acquired by a User Entity; when the balance reaches zero, Users are not allowed to use ABCI Service.

4 ABCI Points deducted according to the service used and the usage fee corresponding to those points will be separately assessed by the Institute, who will post notice of such on the website under the administrator's control.

5 ABCI Points acquired by a User Entity will lose effect at the end of March every year and cannot be carried over to the next year. However, in such cases that Users cannot use the ABCI Service until the last day of March, and the period of non-use exceeds 20 days owing to unavoidable circumstances, such as ABCI failure or a natural disaster, ABCI Points may be carried over to the next year.

6 Usage fees paid by a User Entity for acquisition of ABCI Points will not be refunded by the Institute under any circumstances.

7 The Institute may commission invoicing and collection of usage fees corresponding to ABCI Points to an outsourcer, and Users shall approve it.

(Attribution of Results)

Article 15 Intellectual property rights which Users obtain by means of using ABCI Service shall belong to the Users. However, when contribution by the Executives and Staff is recognized or another agreement between the Institute and a User Entity exists, it shall be treated differently.

If another agreement exists between the Institute and a User Entity, rights shall be governed by that agreement.

(Rules for Users)

Article 16 Users shall not:

- (i) act against rules specified in this agreement and those described in the Answer Form;
- (ii) use ABCI Service for purposes other than those described in the Application Form;
- (iii) perform acts that infringe upon or are likely to infringe upon any intellectual property rights or trademark rights of the Institute or a third party;

(iv) perform acts that infringe upon or are likely to infringe upon any copyright, privacy, or portrait rights of the Institute or a third party;

(v) falsify or erase electronic information of the Institute, including ABCI Points;

(vi) develop harmful computer programs, such as viruses, etc.;

(vii) provide unauthorized access to the network, internet, or servers, etc. of the Institute connecting to the network above;

(viii) perform acts that hinder or are likely to hinder providing ABCI Service;

(ix) perform acts that violate or are likely to violate laws;

(x) create a significant nuisance, including a social behavior, for other Users and/or third parties;

(xi) perform any other acts that the Institute judges to be inappropriate for any user of ABCI Service

2 The Supervisory User shall manage Users' state of use and provide them guidance as to follow all rules specified in this agreement.

3 The User Entity and the Supervisory User shall report the state of use of service to the Institute upon his/her request.

(Account Management)

Article 17 For use of ABCI Service, Users shall have an ABCI account provided by the Institute and related to his/her effective corporate or institutional e-mail address. No personal e-mail addresses will be accepted.

2 Users shall not disclose his/her account information nor password provided by the Institute to a third-party without the express permission of the Institute and shall also maintain such information appropriately so that it is not easily guessed.

(Representations and Warranties for Data of Users)

Article 18 Users shall represent and warrant that his/her data does not violate any laws, and maintain responsibility for its development, contents, operation, maintenance, and use of such Data of Users.

(Security and Backup of Data of Users)

Article 19 Users make an oath that Data of Users is to be appropriately secured and protected, including providing security measures and saving it periodically.

2 Users operating the server with an IP address on the service network (experimental line) shall be responsible for their own security measures.

3 Users shall use ABCI by following information security implementation guidelines, according to the Institute's security measures.

4 In case that Executives and Staff accept an external network connection, they must apply for and receive approval from the ABCI Operator in advance.

(Compliance with Security Trade Export Control Laws)

Article 20 In case that Users intend to provide technology or export cargo that comes under Security Trade Export Control Laws, resulting from accompanied information from using ABCI Service, results gained from the use, or any other objects produced by the use of service, Users shall take responsibility for use while obeying Security Trade Export Control Laws.

(Publication of Facts or Results Made by Users)

Article 21 The Supervisory User shall notify the Institute about the fact that Users used ABCI Service, except for Confidential Information, when they intended to make it public for scientific presentation, international conference, press release, etc.

2 The Supervisory User shall report use of ABCI Service by Users for writing a thesis, report, etc. (hereinafter, referred to as “Theses”) in case that Users intend to make his/her research results public, provided, however, that this does not apply if the Institute judges that no description is required for rational reasons and notifies the Supervisory User of this judgment.

(Installation of Software by Users)

Article 22 In using ABCI Service, Users may install software not provided by the Institute with acquisition of its license and the Institute’s permission.

2 Software with licenses obtained by Users shall be installed in a storage area of the User Group at their own responsibility.

3 Users shall submit an information provision request to the ABCI Operator for obtaining necessary information on the acquisition of software licenses and installation of software. Moreover, the Institute shall provide them with information requested through said request form.

4 Users shall submit software installation requests that include software desired to be installed and related necessary work details to the ABCI Operator when Users install any software that requires the Institute to set up, such as for license file registration of ABCI servers. Moreover, the Institute shall carry out its registration based on the said request.

(Unauthorized Use)

Article 23 Users shall not be able to use ABCI Service after the duration described on the Answer Form elapses.

2 A User Entity must pay the amount of money equivalent to double the Usage Fees for the usage time period as compensation for damages, when users use ABCI Service beyond the duration described on the Answer Form without prior written agreement from the Institute.

(No Assignment)

Article 24 Users shall not assign, transfer, or lease the Contract of Use or their rights and obligations for ABCI Service in the Contract of Use without prior written agreement from the Institute.

2 Any assignment or transfer made against the preceding clause shall be null and void.

(Obligation for Compensation)

Article 25 In case that Users cause damage, disorder, or failures to ABCI due to intention or acting against rules specified in each item of Article 16-1, the Institute may claim payment for those damages from Users.

2 In case that a third party incurs damages due to or related to Users’ use of ABCI Service, and that the third party claims those damages against the Institute, Users shall bear all costs and damages in place of the Institute.

(Handling Confidential Information)

Article 26 The Institute and Users shall keep Confidential Information that either party discloses (excluding Data of Users, as specified in Article 2) strictly confidential and shall not leak them to a third party without the other party’s prior written consent.

2 The Institute and Users shall strictly manage Confidential Information by means of designating a responsible handler.

3 The Institute and a User Entity shall disclose Confidential Information limited to those who are executives, staff and Users, and also are related to the ABCI use. Moreover, they shall indicate that Confidential Information must be managed as confidential. The executives, staff and Users must have responsibility equivalent to the Institute and a User Entity must owe.

4 Users shall immediately notify the Institute when creating Inventions with or including Confidential Information disclosed by the Institute. Moreover, the Institute and the User Entity shall discuss how to handle said Inventions.

5 The scope of Confidential Information that Users disclose to the Institute shall be minimized for the purpose of ABCI use.

(Handling Data of Users)

Article 27 The Institute shall take rational and appropriate measures to protect Data of Users from leakage, loss, or damage due to an accident or an illegal act.

2 The Institute and its executives and staff shall not browse, refer to, or disclose Data of Users stored in ABCI to a third party without explicit consent of the User Entity and the Supervisory User, except in the following cases:

(i) the Institute outsources operations to a third party in order to provide and maintain ABCI Service as an operational need arises. In such case, the Institute shall require an outsourcing contractor to follow the rules of handling Data of Users specified in this agreement;

(ii) the Institute, its Executives and Staff, etc. are legally required to disclose and provide Data of Users subject to the demand of law, judgment, decision, or ordinance by court or administrative organization, to said court or administrative organization. In such cases, the Institute and its executives and staff shall notify a User Entity of the demand described above.

(Handling of Operational Data)

Article 28 The Institute may occasionally refer to File Information of Users in order to accomplish normal system operations.

2 The Institute may collect Use Information of Users and Performance Information in order to improve program performance and analyze user conditions, for the purposes of increasing convenience to Users and efficiency of system operations.

3 The Institute may make certain data public, such as Operational Data which does not include any personal identifiable information and statistical data for the purposes of promotion of technology development and contribution to science.

(Protection of Personal Information)

Article 29 The Institute shall manage personal information of Users, according to Personal Information Protection Rules.

(Confirmation of Use Condition)

Article 30 The Institute shall be able to confirm use conditions of ABCI Service by a User Entity in order to calculate ABCI Points and usage fees for such services, provide Users with support services (in case of request), and manage ABCI.

(Job Cancellation)

Article 31 The Institute may execute job cancellation with prior notice to the User Entity and the Supervisory User if the Institute judges that provision of ABCI Service may be disrupted. In case of an emergency, the Institute may cancel jobs without prior notice to the User Entity and the Supervisory User.

(Band Control)

Article 32 The Institute may control bands assigned to communication by way of using the Institution’s specified communication means if the Institute anticipates problems.

(Disclaimer)

Article 33 The Institute shall not bear any legal liabilities nor provide any indemnification or compensation for damages incurred to Users or third parties due to or associated with accidents and incidents caused by use of ABCI Service; provided, however, that this does not apply in cases that the Institute purposely brings about said accidents or incidents.

- 2 The Institute shall not bear any legal liabilities nor provide any indemnification or compensation for damages incurred to Users or third parties due to disorder, malfunction, or defect of ABCI (including but not limited to loss of Data of Users).
- 3 The Institute shall not bear any legal liabilities nor provide any indemnification or compensation for damages incurred to Users or third parties due to cancellation of use acceptance or suspension order of service use according to Articles 7-1 and 7-2.
- 4 In case that Users are charged with infringing on rights of a third party by use of ABCI, results from use of ABCI, or manufacturing and sales utilizing said results, Users shall resolve said disputes at their own expense and on their own responsibility. The Institute shall not bear any liabilities nor provide any indemnification and compensation.
- 5 In event that the Institute is liable for damages, the coverage shall be limited to direct and usual damages, not including profit loss, special damages, or indirect damages.

(Effective Term of the Contract of Use)

Article 34 The Contract of Use shall end by the term described in the Answer Form; provided, however, that Article 7-3 in this agreement shall remain in full force for one (1) year from termination of use, and Article 26 in this agreement shall remain in full force for five (5) years from termination of use.

(Termination of the Contract of Use)

Article 35 The Institute shall terminate the Contract of Use without any advance notice when either one of the following reasons:

- (i) a User Entity appeals bankruptcy, civil rehabilitation, corporate reorganization, or special liquidation or is on the process of special liquidation;
  - (ii) Users becomes unqualified to Article 6-3, or it is proved;
  - (iii) Users violate this agreement.
2. A User Entity shall terminate the Contract of Use by 30-day advance notice to the Institute.

(Termination of the Contract of Use Based on Attributional Requirements for Involvement with Organized Crime Group)

Article 36 The Institute or a User Entity (including Supervisory User and Users) may terminate the Contract of Use without any notice or demand if any of the following items applies:

- (i) the counterparty belongs to an organized crime group (as specified in Article 2-2 of the Act on the Prevention of Unjust Acts by Organized Crime Group Members (Act No. 77 of 1991); the same applies hereinafter) or an executive or a staff of the counterparty (an individual, an executive or a representative of a branch office or sales office (where the Contract of Use is concluded) in case of an organization, a representative or a director of a group, and any other person who are involved in management) are members of it (shall mean a member specified in Article 2-6 of the same Act; the same applies hereinafter);
- (ii) the executives and staff of the counterparty rely on an organized crime group or its members for the purposes of making illicit gain for them or a third party, or inflicting damages on a third party;
- (iii) the executives and staff of the counterparty actively cooperates and are involved with the maintenance or operation of any organized crime group by providing funding to any organized crime group or its members or by affording benefit to them;

- (iv) the executives and staff of the counterparty keeps socially condemnable relationships with an organized crime group or its members while knowing that the group or person is such.
- 2 The Institute or a User Entity shall not be required to provide any compensation for damages incurred by the counterparty (hereinafter, referred to as "the Counterparty") as a result of the termination of the Contract of Use according to the preceding clause.
- 3 The Counterparty shall provide compensation for damages incurred in case that the Institute or a User Entity terminates the Contract of Use according to clause 1.
- 4 In case that the Counterparty does not pay compensation specified in the preceding clause by the due date, the Counterparty shall pay to a claimant a late charge on the unpaid balance of such amount at 5% per annum for the period from the due date to the date that the payment is actually made.
- 5 In case that the Institute or a User Entity receives unreasonable demands or such injustice intervention on the Contract of Use (hereinafter referred to as "injustice intervention") as obstruction of business by anti-social forces like organized crime groups, its members, or related persons, the Institute or a User Entity shall reject and immediately report such demands to the Counterparty, as well as the police, and provide any support for investigation requested by the police.

(Treatment at Termination of the Contract of Use)

Article 37 In case of termination of the Contract of Use, the Institute shall delete the entire Data of Users stored in their Group or Home Area (except for their registration data), when six months elapses after termination.

- 2 The Institute shall further store said data for a period accepted by the Institute after the termination of the Contract of Use when the Supervisory User requests the preservation of data in the preceding clause in advance. Such a period shall be notified by the Institute to the Supervisory User.

(Method of Notification)

Article 38 Any notice from the Institute to Users shall be sent by way of e-mail, electronic files, including PDF and the like, or in written form to the e-mail address described in the Application Form or a contact prescribed by Users on the Application Form, unless otherwise noticed in this agreement.

- 2 In case that the Institute gives notice to Users by means described in the preceding clause, even though said notice is not received by Users, it shall be deemed to have been received accordingly. The Institute shall not bear any liabilities for damages incurred to Users due to undelivered notices.
